Subject: Super Salvage

Hi Everyone,

The purpose of this meeting is to discuss the next steps concerning Super Salvage. Please note the meeting will start at 1:15 pm. As you know, EPA has visited the location twice, here is what we know:

Super Salvage is a scrap metal facility located in Washington, DC.

On February 20, 2013, Allison Graham, an EPA inspector, visited the site to determine compliance with facility's Industrial Stormwater requirements.

On May 28-29, 2013, Jerry and Justin visited Super Salvage and took several samples. Waiting for sample results.
